Support us

Beit Noah operates as a non-profit organization:

Our accommodations are simple and affordable.

Many of our local guests participate financially with a symbolic contribution, others pay the “full” amount. Each group is required to leave the place as they would like to find it. This is also “Tabgha-Sharing”, so that “all may be satisfied”, as it says in the Gospel.

The necessary work is done almost exclusively by our young volunteers. In order to be able to cover the high running costs, to make replacements and new acquisitions, and to be able to develop the place further, we are therefore essentially dependent on subsidies and donations.

So we ask for your support!

Thank you very much!

Our guests about us:

“ We had people coming from different backgrounds: Addiction, abuse, imprisonment, brokenness, etc. so we all needed inner healing and what could be a place better than Tabgha for such encounter with God and our inner person and wounds.”

(Caregiver of an Arab facility)

“ We love to return to Tabgha, knowing that our residents will have a safe and relaxing experience. Especially for those who have difficulty with change, loud noises and overwhelming sensory experience, Tabgha provides a peaceful break from the norm.”

Retreat Center Beit Noah

A special place for special people

Dear Friends of Beit Noah,

Tabgha is a wonderful place, and the Gospel of the multiplication of loaves and fish we remember here gives us a clear calling: We want to lend our hearts, faces and hands anew to the mercy that Jesus exemplifies here.

It's about sharing what we have, however small and little. For especially in this, God's love is shown to people and we can show this love as well. In Tabgha, God did not only want to share with people bread and fish, but also peace, security and love.

Join us in sharing Tabgha too!

Support the work of our brothers, staff and young volunteers for our guests of Beit Noah: through your solidarity, your prayers and your donations.

*With heartfelt blessings from Tabgha,
Your Benedictine monks of Dormition Abbey and Tabgha Priory*

Beit Noah
in Tabgha is a site.

And it is a colorful temporary community:

In our monastery garden
we welcome people
from all over the world
for a special time of rest,
encounter and silence,
so that they can go on with new strength and hope.

We value:

- Loving Kindness
For every person is lovable before God.
- Hospitality
For hospitality is a basic Benedictine attitude.
- Openness
For mutual openness enables "eye to eye" encounters.
- Trust
For trust is the energy to help relationships grow
- Impartiality
For part of the essence of Beit Noah is that it is free of politics and ideology.

We welcome:

- Mainly social institutions for children and young people with a focus on people with "special needs" from the Holy Land
- International student, school and youth groups
- International pilgrim groups
- Local and international families and individual guests
- Guests of Jewish, Muslim and Christian background, which gives Beit Noah an interfaith character.

We - this is us:

- The Benedictine monastic community of the Dormition Abbey in Jerusalem and in Tabgha (project initiators)
- Paul Nordhausen (pedagogical director)
- a team of young, international volunteers
